

eCommerce Store – Customer Training

NexusControls.com/store and store.bakerhughesds.com

May 2021 – Nexus Controls

Home Page

NexusControls.com/Store will redirect to the store.bakerhughesds.com link.

The screenshot shows the Baker Hughes Digital Solutions Store home page. At the top left is the Baker Hughes logo and 'Digital Solutions Store'. A dropdown menu for 'Select a DS Company' is set to 'Nexus Controls LLC (1500) 1800 Nelson Road, La...'. On the right, there are links for 'Contact us', 'English', 'LOGIN / REGISTER', and a 'Cart' icon with a '0' item count. Below the header is a search bar with 'All Categories' and 'Search Catalog' options. A navigation menu includes 'HOME', 'PRODUCT CATALOG', 'TRACK STATUS', 'RETURN PROCESS', and 'HELP'. The main banner features a 'WELCOME To The Digital Solutions Store' message with a list of actions: 'Buy, return, check your orders and returns status'. A 'QUICK STATUS CHECK' form is present with fields for 'Enter Customer Number', 'Enter Purchase Order Number', and 'Enter Order / RMA number', along with 'RESET' and 'TRACK' buttons. A 'Feedback' button is on the right. A 'REGISTER' section on the left encourages users to create an account. A grid of service icons includes 'Browse Product Catalog', 'Check product availability', 'Check Product Price', 'Place Orders', 'Track Orders Status', 'Check Return Prices', 'Create a new RMA', and 'Track Return Status'. A 'BROWSE PRODUCT BRANDS' section is at the bottom left. The footer contains a 'Privacy - Terms' link and the Baker Hughes logo.

1) What happens next?

- Run a Security check on your data.
- Are we confident that this is really you?
 - YES -> automatically approved; you should get an email within 30 minutes.
 - NO -> we forward to our Customer Care team. They check the data in our system, clean it up, maybe they call you to verify. Then they approve or reject a request. This may take several days.

What if there's a problem?

- If you don't hear back, or there's a problem, email us at controlparts@bakerhughes.com.

2) Navigate to Nexus Control Content

This site is used by several Baker Hughes businesses. To get to Nexus Controls products, please select Nexus Controls LLC from the menu at the top.

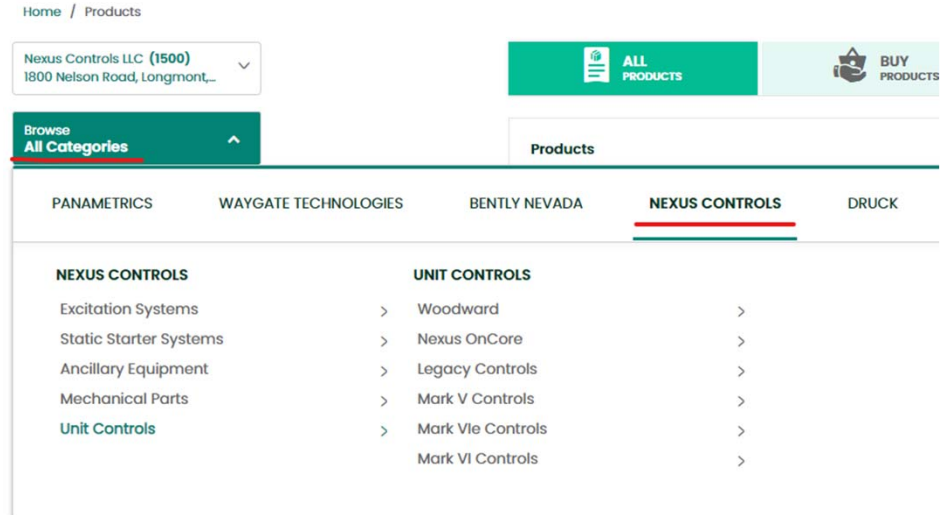

Nexus Controls LLC (1500) is the USA legal entity for Nexus Controls. As of early 2021, customers will need to be able to purchase from this legal entity in USD. In the future we will be adding more country specific content and ability to buy in local currencies.

Functionality is limited until a customer registers from the site. Guest users can browse the Product Catalog.

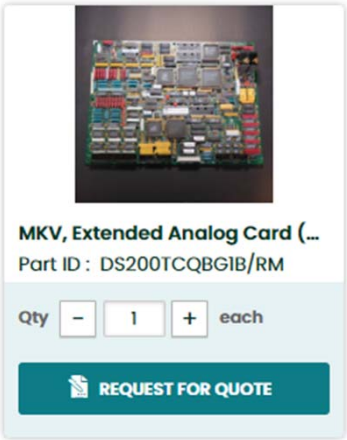

2) Store Content (Guest User)

Parts can be viewed and a request for quote can be submitted. Pricing will not be shown to Guest Users.

On the left side, parts can be searched by equipment type by using Categories. Select Nexus Controls and then the type of system you are searching for.

The Request for Quote button will add it to your cart in the upper right corner. Add all items you are interested in. Click on the Cart icon, then View Cart button to proceed.

2) Store Content (Guest User)

Once in the cart, your selections can be reviewed. Quantities can be updated. Items can be deleted. Once the cart matches the items you are interested in, click on Request a Quote.
